OUR LONDON LETTER.
THE LONDON MIRROR.
NO "POPEY" DEMONSTRATION.
(From our own Correspondent.)

Sept. 30.

It is many a year since the Common Hall at Guildhall has been the scene of such a lively proceeding as yesterday when the City of London assembled to elect a Lord Mayor for the ensuing year as a successor to Sir David Evans. The City of London is a great force in the City of London, and the City of London is a great force in the City of London.

THE BREITL MAILS.
4 DAYS LATER.

London, Oct. 5th.

In the session of the Church Congress at Fulham, which was held yesterday, the Rev. A. Palmer, on behalf of Nonconformists, created a profound impression by his address on the subject of "The Church of the Future." He said that the Church of the future must be a Church of the people, and that it must be a Church of the future.

THE TOWER FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Several plans have been submitted for a tower on the World's Fair grounds, but no definite arrangements have been made until recently. The World's Columbian Tower Association, with a capital stock of $5,000,000, has been organized and expects to have the tower completed by next May. It will be located on the lake front near the World's Fair grounds. The structure will be of steel and iron, 1,400 feet high, 500 feet in diameter at the base and 220 feet in diameter at the cornice line. It will be circular in form and will be mounted by a statue of Columbus standing on a globe 52 feet in diameter.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.
THE INTERVIEW IN SANTIAGO.

Quite an avalanche of telegrams were received on Tuesday and yesterday, mostly confirming the numerous details already wired from the seat of revolution. The Santiago question may be considered settled on the following basis: (1) Election of a new Governor; (2) renewal of the Legislative and judicial powers; and (3) election of an ex-Governor Rojas to a seat in the National Senate. It is possible that there may be some difficulty about the last mentioned condition. In the meantime the following are the latest telegrams from Santiago:

RACING AT BELGRANO.
THE GRAND INTERNATIONAL.

Spice of threatening aspect of the weather in the morning, the International took place in the afternoon, and the course of people yet seen this year on our racetrack was a very good one. The starting of the Grand International was a very good one. The starting of the Grand International was a very good one.

"He That Dies Pays All Debts."
That's one of Shakespeare's sayings in which there's more poetry than truth. A man's debts must be paid from his estate. If you were to die, how much would be left to your widow after all debts were paid? Protect her by assuring your life in the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States
